

Eagle Rally

Eagles International FMCA Rally in Gulf Shores/Orange Beach, Alabama October 11th-15th, 2023. Save the dates, details will be coming soon. This rally will be during the 50th Annual National Shrimp Festival and is sure to be a blast!

Mark your calendars for the 50th Annual Shrimp Festival on October 12-15 in Gulf Shores. This food-focused festival features 50 local and regional vendors serving crab cakes, conch fritters, lobster, Cajun pistols and many other types of delicious food. While here, you can enjoy fresh Gulf shrimp boiled, fried, steamed, and just about any other way you can imagine. The highlight of the event is, of course, the shrimp, but there is much more to enjoy!

Get ready to dance in the sand to more than 100 hours of musical entertainment featuring a lineup of national, regional, and local acts. There will be musical acts to please all ears, with two stages offering non-stop music for four days. You'll tap your feet to blues, classic rock, jazz, country, and even more styles of music.
